Parent support is crucial to the running of our club and providing the best possible soccer experience for your child. By signing this agreement, we ask for your support in running the club in the best possible interests of player development and setting an example of behavior to all those involved within our club.

The Coach will be open to communication with you on matters relating to the team and your child. They will inform you of training, game and tournament times and dates. Team selection, tactics and game time will be at the sole discretion of the coach and we ask that you support these decisions and the position for which they have given their time to fulfill.
